JOB ADVERTISEMENT

JOHN THORNELY FELLOWSHIP IN LAW

4-year fixed term: 1 September 2021 – 31 August 2025
Stipend: Spine point 40 to 45 on the University payscale (£31,865 - £36,914) per annum, plus a per capita stipend for directing studies

The College wishes to appoint an early career researcher and committed teacher to a John Thornely Fellowship in Law. The post will be tenable from 1 September 2021 for a fixed period of four years. The post-holder will be required to teach at least two subjects in the Law Tripos, and particular preference may be given to candidates who are able to offer at least one of the following subjects: Civil Law, Constitutional Law, Law of Contract, Criminal Law, Equity Law, Land Law. The Thornely Fellow will provide undergraduate supervisions for a total of 160 hours per annum in the first year of appointment, 200 in the second, 240 hours thereafter; contribute to Direction of Studies in Law; and take part in the admission process for Law.

The appointment is a fixed-term career development post and is not renewable. The stipend will be on a scale ranging from point 40 to point 45 on the University’s single salary spine (currently £31,865 to £36,914). Salary progression within this range is discretionary. The position is pensionable under the Universities’ Superannuation Scheme. In addition to the substantive stipend, a stipend for directing studies will also be payable which comprises a fixed element of £575 per annum, and a per capita element of £97 per student.

The John Thornely Fellow will be a member of the Governing Body of the College. The Fellow will enjoy the usual privileges of a Fellowship, and academic and research allowances are available. The Fellow will have an office in College, or alternatively rent-free residential accommodation (subject to a service charge) in College may be available.
Further particulars for this post, including guidance on how to apply, can be downloaded from the College Vacancies web page. The Senior Tutor, Mr Max Beber (01223) 338870; SeniorTutor@sid.cam.ac.uk), and/or the Director of Studies in Law, Dr Fernando Bordin (fi290@cam.ac.uk), welcome the opportunity to have an informal conversation about the Fellowship with prospective applicants. Applications should include the names and addresses of THREE referees, and it is the applicant’s responsibility to ask their referees to submit their references by the closing date for applications.

Applications and references must be submitted to HR@sid.cam.ac.uk by 9am on Monday 7 June 2021. It is expected that shortlisted candidates will be notified later that week, with interviews taking place during the week beginning 14 June 2021.

The College reserves the right not to make an appointment.

Sidney Sussex is committed to fostering equality, inclusiveness and diversity. We strongly encourage applications from women, disabled people and people from BME backgrounds, as these groups are currently under-represented on the College’s academic staff.